1	Evonne, Just fyi, we do not have sidewalks in Amberley Village.	2/8/2019 10:42 AM
2	N/A	2/5/2019 3:21 PM
3	No it is not actively enforced, but it does say that if the property owner does not keep it clear it may result in a minor misdemeanor.	2/5/2019 8:20 AM
4	In the recent past the policy has not been enforced, however we have begun the process of education through the bi-weekly newsletter to advise that residents are responsible to keep sidewalks clear. We will likely begin increasing enforcement next winter.	2/4/2019 3:44 PM
5	No. In our experience the removal of snow doesn't mitigate an accident, it actually makes things worse because from a legal perspective the removal of snow is more likely to cause ice and then falls.	2/4/2019 3:27 PM
6	No - but we did send two letters to properties that we received complaints about.	2/4/2019 3:19 PM
7	No - by the time we would enforce it - the snow has usually melted.	2/4/2019 3:08 PM
8	It hasn't been in some time, however this recently came up again during Council and will be a focus of enforcement moving forward. Information highlighting the ordinance will be placed on future village/resident communication and the website. Hopefully this spurs compliance so more aggressive enforcement measures won't be necessary.	2/4/2019 3:06 PM
9	No. The way the ordinance is worded, the owner must clear within 48 hours after the snow event has ceased. Notice to the offending party is sent via mail or personal service and then they have another 48 hours to clear the walk. By the time those 4 days have passed, the snow has usually melted.	2/4/2019 3:05 PM
