

Peer to Supervisor

for MVCC Member, Partners, Affiliate Member Cities, and all local governments.

If you have been promoted from within, you may find yourself having to manage the very people you were working with as a peer. Your success in your new position will be in your ability to engage your peers as a new team and get them comfortable with collaborating with you as the boss.

Transitioning from Peer to Supervisor

Maybe you have been working hard to be promoted to a management position and that is around the corner for you, or it has recently happened. Transitioning from co-worker to boss is exciting and can also lead to some sticky situations and unique challenges.

In this course you will learn the following:

- Three questions to ask yourself before you take the promotion
- Eight tips to help you transition from a peer to a supervisor
- How to help engage your employees
- Panel discussion on challenges and success on transitioning in the MVCC
