

CAMA Members Are Invited To:

Bridging the Gap: How City Leaders Can Strengthen and Safeguard Their Police Agencies

- When: Friday, November 14th, 2025: 11 AM - 11:30 AM (Check In); 11:30 AM (Welcome); 11:45 AM (Lunch); 12:15 PM - 1 PM (Presentation)
- Location: Hamilton Township Municipal Building (7780 South State Route 48, Hamilton Township, OH 45039)
- Cost: $20.00 / person for CAMA members
- Program: Policing success starts with leadership support. This session shows how city and township leaders can strengthen and safeguard their police agencies through proactive training, sound policy decisions, and effective communication, reducing liability, elevating performance, and building lasting community trust.
- Speaker: Chief Scott Hughes — Chief of Police, Hamilton Township (OH); founder of Crosden Consulting; national instructor with Calibre Press; graduate of the FBI National Academy. He advises agencies nationwide on leadership, training, use of force, and organizational risk management.
Jeff Wright — Township Administrator, Hamilton Township (OH), with more than two decades of experience in local government management. He oversees day-to-day operations, budgeting, and strategic planning while fostering collaboration between administrative and public safety divisions to enhance community service delivery and trust.
- Lunch: Will be catered by Currito. If you have any food allergies, please let us know when you RSVP
-

Please RSVP to ZHuett@C4LG.org no later than 4 PM on Wednesday, November 12th.