Social Media, Public Meetings, and Citizen Rights

MVRMA is pleased to host Social Media, Public Meetings, and Citizen Rights. This session will be beneficial to any public facing official, such as City Council Members, Police & Fire Chiefs, City Managers, and more.

Whether it's the citizen comment section of your public meetings or the comments left on your Facebook posts, there are complicated and misunderstood legal requirements for what public officials can do to maintain order. This session will explain it all, answer your questions, and give you the policies and procedures you need to keep your agency — and you — from being successfully sued.

Our trainer is Mark Weaver. He is a battle-tested litigator and former Deputy Ohio Attorney General with more than three decades of legal experience. He's a litigation partner at a large Columbus law firm who regularly argues in the Ohio Supreme Court. For years, he taught at The Ohio State University College of Law, and he is now an Adjunct Professor at the School of Government at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill.
