

CAMA Members Are Invited To:

Current Trends and Economic Outlook for the Region/ State

When: Friday, March 20, 2026: 11 AM - 11:30 AM (Check In); 11:30 AM (Welcome); 11:45 AM (Lunch); 12:15 PM - 1 PM (Presentation)

Location: Terwilliger Lodge (10530 Deerfield Road, Montgomery, OH 45242)

Cost: $25.00 / person for CAMA members

Program: Janet Harrah, Senior Director of the Center for Economic Analysis and Development, Haile College of Business at Northern Kentucky University, will provide a data-driven overview of current economic conditions affecting Southwest Ohio and Northern Kentucky.

The presentation will review recent trends in employment, labor force participation, population change, housing conditions, and key industry performance across the bi-state region. It will also examine broader national economic forces — including inflation, interest rates, and fiscal conditions — and how they are influencing local communities.

Designed for public-sector managers, this session will focus on the practical implications of economic trends for budgeting, workforce recruitment, infrastructure planning, and service delivery. The goal is to provide objective context and reliable data to support informed decision-making in the year ahead.

Speaker: Janet Harrah, Executive Director of Outreach of the Haile College of Business and Senior Director of the NKU Center for Economic Analysis and Development

Lunch: Will be catered by Bru Burger (Burgers, Chicken Tenders, Cobb Salad, Fries; Vegan cheese and gluten free buns will be included). Please let us know of any other dietary restrictions

Please RSVP to ZHuett@C4LG.org no later than 4 PM on Wednesday, March 18th.
